- Hugo Yui, do you want to go to the firemen's ball tonight?
- Yui A ball at a fire station? Are you joking?
- Hugo No, really! Firefighters open their stations for the Fourteenth of July.
- Yui Oh, you mean Pari-sai! That's what we call it in Japan.
- Hugo Pari-sai? I've never heard that name.
- Yui It comes from an old French movie. Its Japanese title was Pari-sai.
- Hugo That's funny. But it's not only for Paris. All of France celebrates.
- Yui I see. Is it the day people attacked the Bastille?
- Hugo Yes, in 1789. But it also remembers a peaceful festival in 1790.
- Yui Two stories on one day. I like that.
- Hugo Tomorrow, let's watch the parade and the fireworks, too.
- Yui Great! Should I say Happy Bastille Day?
- Hugo Say Bon 14 Juillet! Everyone will smile.
