Listen here

- Haruto Jasmine, why are you wearing that old jacket and those goggles?
- Jasmine I'm Bessie Coleman today! She was a pilot. It's for our living wax museum.
- Haruto A living wax museum? What's that?
- Jasmine Each student becomes a famous Black American. Visitors push a button, and we tell our story.
- Haruto That sounds fun! Is it because of Black History Month?
- Jasmine Yes. In February, we learn about Black history at school.
- Haruto Why February? Is it because it's the shortest month?
- Jasmine No, that's a myth. Lincoln and Frederick Douglass have birthdays in February.
- Haruto Oh, I see. Who started it?
- Jasmine A historian named Carter G. Woodson. It started as one week in 1926.
- Haruto Really? So it's 100 years old now.
- Jasmine That's right. Do you want to join the museum next year?
- Haruto Sure! Maybe I can be Harriet Tubman's helper on the Underground Railroad.
