Listen here

- Daiki Emma, tomorrow is a holiday. It's Culture Day.
- Emma Culture Day? What do people celebrate?
- Daiki Our constitution was announced on November 3, 1946.
- Emma Oh, so it's like Constitution Day in America?
- Daiki Kind of. But we have Constitution Day in May, too.
- Emma Two holidays for one constitution? Lucky you!
- Daiki Ha! The law says Culture Day is for loving freedom and peace.
- Emma That's nice. So what do people actually do?
- Daiki Some museums are free, and many schools have culture festivals.
- Emma A culture festival? What's that?
- Daiki Students show their art, music, and plays. Some classes run little cafes.
- Emma That sounds fun! Is there one near here?
- Daiki My old high school has one tomorrow. Let's go together.
- Emma Great! I hope the weather is nice.
- Daiki Don't worry. People say November 3 is usually sunny.
