Mei Haruto, tomorrow is the Dragon Boat Festival. Do you want to watch the races?

Haruto Sure! But wait, isn't Tango in May? We celebrate it on May 5 in Japan.

Mei Here we use the lunar calendar, so it moves every year. This year it's in June.

Haruto I see. What happens at the races?

Mei Each boat has twenty paddlers and a drummer. The drums are so loud!

Haruto That sounds exciting. Do you eat anything special?

Mei Zongzi, of course! My grandma makes salty ones with pork and egg.

Haruto We eat chimaki in Japan too, but they're usually sweet.

Mei Really? Sweet or salty is a big fight here! Oh, and at noon we stand eggs.

Haruto Stand eggs? Like this? That's impossible!

Mei If it stands, you'll have good luck all year. Let's try it tomorrow!

Haruto OK! And I'll tell you about carp streamers. They're about dragons, too.
