- Jack Mei, why is Wednesday, May 6 red on the calendar?
- Mei It's a substitute holiday. Constitution Day was on Sunday this year.
- Jack But then shouldn't Monday be the day off?
- Mei Monday and Tuesday are already holidays. So the day off moves to Wednesday.
- Jack That's clever! In the U.K., we call it a substitute day.
- Mei And in September, we'll get an extra day between two holidays.
- Jack Between two holidays? Japan really loves days off!
