Listen here

- Kenta Rachel, why are there candles in your window? Is that for Christmas?
- Rachel No, it's for Hanukkah. My family is Jewish.
- Kenta Hanukkah? I've heard the name, but I don't know much about it.
- Rachel It's the Festival of Lights. It lasts for eight nights.
- Kenta Eight nights? Why so long?
- Rachel There's an old story. A little oil burned for eight days in the Temple.
- Kenta Wow. But I count four candles and one more on top.
- Rachel Tonight is the fourth night. The one on top is the shamash. It lights the others.
- Kenta That's cool. Do you get presents, too?
- Rachel Sometimes. But my favorite part is the food. My dad makes latkes.
- Kenta Latkes? What are those?
- Rachel Fried potato pancakes. Come in and try some! We can play dreidel after dinner.
