Grace Sota, the calendar says November 23 is Labor Thanksgiving Day. What is that?

Sota It's a national holiday to thank people for their work.

Grace Thanksgiving in November? Do you eat turkey?

Sota Ha ha, no. There's no special food. It's different from American Thanksgiving.

Grace So where did it come from?

Sota It was an old rice festival. The emperor offers new rice to the gods on this day.

Grace Really? He still does that today?

Sota Yes, every year at night in the Imperial Palace.

Grace Wow. So what do people do on the holiday?

Sota Kids often make thank-you cards for their parents or for firefighters.

Grace That's sweet. Maybe our students can do that in English class!

Sota Great idea. By the way, Grace, otsukaresama.

Grace Otsukaresama? What does that mean?

Sota It means thank you for your hard work. Perfect for this holiday!
