- Sota Wow, Emily, that's a big pie. Is it someone's birthday?
- Emily Kind of! It's Pi Day. And it's Einstein's birthday, too.
- Sota Pi Day? You mean pie, the food?
- Emily Both! Pi, the number, is 3.14. And today is March 14. Three, fourteen!
- Sota Ha! That's a great joke. We don't do this in Japan.
- Emily Really? What do you do on March 14?
- Sota It's White Day. Boys give sweets back to girls.
- Emily That sounds sweet. Here, our math class is having a contest.
- Sota A pie-eating contest?
- Emily No, a pi contest. Who can say the most digits?
- Sota Oh no. I only know 3.14159.
- Emily That's not bad! The winner gets to throw a pie at Mr. Brown.
