Listen here

- Haruto Mrs. Clarke, why is everyone wearing a red flower?

- Mrs. Clarke It's a poppy. Today is Remembrance Day.

- Haruto Remembrance Day? What do people remember?

- Mrs. Clarke The soldiers who died in the wars. The fighting in the First World War stopped at eleven o'clock on this day.

- Haruto It's almost eleven now. Is that why the station is getting quiet?

- Mrs. Clarke Yes. We'll stand still for two minutes. Just stay with me.

- Haruto OK. In Japan, we have a moment of silence on August 15.

- Mrs. Clarke Then you understand. Afterwards, let's get a poppy for you, too.
