Listen here

- Haruto Ploy, why is everyone carrying water guns today?
- Ploy It's Songkran, Haruto! It's our traditional New Year.
- Haruto New Year in April? I thought Thailand used January 1.
- Ploy We do. But Songkran is still the biggest holiday of the year.
- Haruto So I'll get wet if I walk to the market?
- Ploy Definitely! But that's a good thing. The water washes away bad luck.
- Haruto That sounds fun. Can I splash anyone?
- Ploy Almost anyone. But please don't splash the monks.
- Haruto Got it. What did you do this morning?
- Ploy I poured flower water over my grandmother's hands. Then she gave me a blessing.
- Haruto That's beautiful. In Japan, we pour sweet tea on a little Buddha statue in April.
- Ploy Really? Then you're ready for Songkran. Here, take this water gun!
