- Sofia Daiki, why is Monday a holiday next week?
- Daiki It's Marine Day. It's a national holiday for the sea.
- Sofia A holiday for the sea? We don't have that in Italy.
- Daiki The government says no other country has one. Japan has about 14,000 islands, you know.
- Sofia Wow! So how did it start?
- Daiki In 1876, Emperor Meiji came back to Yokohama on a ship called the Meiji Maru. It was July 20.
- Sofia Then why isn't the holiday on July 20?
- Daiki It was, but since 2003 it's been on the third Monday. That gives us a long weekend.
- Sofia Smart idea! Is the Meiji Maru still around?
- Daiki Yes. It's at a university in Tokyo. You can go inside on open days.
- Sofia I'd love to see it. What do people usually do on Marine Day?
- Daiki Most people go to the beach or eat good seafood.
- Sofia Then let's go to the beach on Monday and see the ship on Tuesday!
