- Emily Wow, Daiki! Why are you buying so many cookies?
- Daiki Tomorrow is White Day. I have to give these back.
- Emily White Day? I've never heard of it.
- Daiki That's because it started in Japan. It's exactly one month after Valentine's Day.
- Emily So in Japan, women give chocolate first?
- Daiki Yes, usually. Then men give a return gift on March 14.
- Emily That's interesting! In my country, men often give flowers on Valentine's Day.
- Daiki I've heard that. Here, many companies have a custom of giving sweets to coworkers.
- Emily Who started White Day?
- Daiki Good question. Candy makers and a sweet shop in Fukuoka both say they did.
- Emily Ha! A sweet fight. Do you have to give three times more?
- Daiki Some people say so, but I'm just giving cookies to everyone.
- Emily Well, I didn't give you chocolate. Can I still get one?
- Daiki Sure. Welcome to Japan, Emily!
