- Haruto Hi, Olivia. What are you making?
- Olivia A poster for Women's History Month. Our class is doing a project.
- Haruto Women's History Month? Is it the same as Women's Day on March 8?
- Olivia Not exactly. Women's Day is one day. This is the whole month of March.
- Haruto A whole month! What do you do?
- Olivia We learn about women in history. I chose Sally Ride, the first American woman in space.
- Haruto Cool. Who started this month?
- Olivia A teacher here in California. It started as just one week in 1978.
- Haruto Only one week? It really grew.
- Olivia Yes. It became a month in 1987. Do you have something like this in Japan?
- Haruto Hmm, there is a Women's Week in April. Women first voted on April 10, 1946.
- Olivia Really? Then you can make a poster about a Japanese woman.
- Haruto Good idea. I'll choose Tsuda Umeko. She's on the new 5,000-yen bill.
- Olivia That sounds great. I can't wait to see it!
